

COVID-19: Safe Management Measures at the Workplace (Online)

Adopting good practices for protecting and safeguarding against any risks and also to ensure that business continuity is in place is crucial. The roles and the responsibilities of the Safe Management Officers (SMO) in implementing Safe Management Measures Programme with a plan will be covered.

TARGET AUDIENCE

HR, WSH Officers and those who are appointed as Safe Management Officers (SMO) at the workplace

TAKEAWAY POINTS

- Requirements of Safe Management Measures to be implemented across general workplace settings
- Importance of workplaces to provide a safe working environment and measures to minimize risks of further outbreaks.
- Legal Requirements based on MOH, MTI, EDB and MOM on Safe Management Measures and compliance for Enforcement by government bodies.
- Roles and responsibilities of an appointed WSH Professionals / Safe Management Officer(s) (SMO) in implementing a Safe Management Measures Programme at workplaces

COURSE DETAILS

When: 17 September 2020

What Time: 9am - 11am

Where: Zoom (virtual)

How much: $123.05 (after GST)

ABOUT TRAINER

Mr Chang Keen Weng has more than 30 years of experience in consulting, mentoring and training in the areas of Risk Management & Business Continuity Plans.

He has trained and participated in SG CLEAN PROGRAMME assessment for malls, F&B and retail establishments.

Register online at www.snef.org.sg
Click on 'Training' – SNEFDigital

For enquiries, contact Veena at 6827 6973 or veena@snef.org.sg